For further information regarding climate in Sydney please refer to: www.sydney.com.au/weather.htm

COST OF LIVING IN SYDNEY

It is strongly recommended that you organise to bring with you enough funds to support you and your dependents during your study in Australia.

As per Department of Home Affairs guidelines the financial requirements per year are outlined in the table below:

Expenses	Per Person	Amount required in AUD
Travel	Applicant	Return air fare to Australia
	Family members	One return air fare to Australia per person
Tuition	Applicant	Course fees
	School-age children aged 5-18	$13,502 AUD per year
Living	Applicant	$29,710 AUD per year
	Partner	$10,394 AUD per year
	Child	$4,449 AUD per year

For further information please visit the Department of Home Affairs website.

MEDICAL INSURANCE

As per student visa compliance requirements students and their dependants are required to have visa length health cover. Please talk to the UniSQ Sydney staff located at Level 1, 29-37 Bellevue Street, Surry Hills 2010 for information on fees and charges.

All international students are required to have a valid Overseas Student Health Cover policy for the duration of their stay in Australia. UniSQ Sydney provides Overseas Student Health Cover via Bupa as an option. Should students take a policy on their own accord they need to ensure the policy covers the duration of their student visa and a copy of their policy must be provided at the time of acceptance.

If you are accompanied by a spouse and/or dependent children, you will need to pay a family premium.

For more information on OSHC Bupa* visit the Bupa website.

Please note: fees are subject to change

For further information on other OSHC providers visit PrivateHealth.gov.au

AUSTRALIAN AIRPORT REGULATIONS (CUSTOMS & QUARANTINE)

Australian Customs

On arrival you will be required to present your passport and the completed incoming passenger card to the customs officer, then collect your luggage and proceed to the green or red channel.

- If you do not have any goods to declare follow the green Channel.
- If you have any goods to declare or are unsure, follow the red Channel.

When travelling to Australia; please be aware that if you are carrying a total of AUD$10,000 or more in cash of any currency, you MUST declare the money on your incoming passenger card and when questioned by Australian Customs officials on arrival. A failure to declare this money may result in the money being taken and you being arrested and prosecuted. It is NOT an offence to bring this money into Australia. The offence is not declaring the money.

For information regarding duty free allowance and restricted imports, please refer to:

<https://www.abf.gov.au/>

Australian Quarantine

The Australian Quarantine Service strictly enforces Australian regulations covering items that can and cannot be brought into Australia. You must declare on the incoming passenger card:

- Food
- Plant Material – including any wooden items
- Animal products.

Any prohibited items should be placed in the quarantine bins on the way to baggage collection at the airport. Baggage will be checked by both specially trained sniffer dogs and x-ray machines, so take care to declare any items, even if you are unsure about them. On the spot fines can be imposed for failure to declare items. Further information may be obtained at: <https://www.sydney.com/australian-customs-and-quarantine-control>

After you clear Immigration Control and Customs, if you require any additional information regarding accommodation or transport facilities visit the Tourism Information Counter (i) where you will be assisted by the staff there.

TRANSPORT FROM SYDNEY AIRPORT

From the airport you may choose to proceed by train, taxi or airport shuttle bus.

- Taxi charges approximately $45 - $55 from the airport to the city.
- Train charges approximately $19 from the airport to Central Station in the city.
- Shuttle Bus approximately $20 - $25 from the airport to the city.
Please note: these buses need to be pre-booked.

Visit the Sydney Airport website for further information on transport options.

STUDENT SAFETY AND CONSUMER PROTECTION

Please refer to the Study in Australia website for information regarding health and safety.

Please refer to the NSW Fair Trading website for information regarding your consumer rights and responsibilities.

STUDENT VISA ISSUES

Australian Student Visa

The Australian Government approves student visas for study in Australia. The Australian Government determines the requirements for the issue of a student visa.

The Australian Government operates an Overseas Student program that allows people who are not Australian citizens or Australian permanent residents to study in Australia. If you wish to study in Australia you must first obtain a student visa.

To be eligible for a student visa you must be accepted for full-time study for the whole or part of the education program you intend to do with UniSQ Sydney and also meet a number of assessment factors and general requirements that have been established by the Australian Government.

The University of Southern Queensland (UniSQ) is a registered provider of education with the Australian Government (CRICOS Institution Code No. QLD 00244B, NSW 02225M).

For all information and advice on applying for your visa ask UniSQ's representative or make contact with your nearest Australian Embassy, Consulate or High Commission. For latest general information please visit the Department of Home Affairs website.

Australian Student Visa information – <https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/visas/getting-a-visa/visa-finder/study>

Please remember noncompliance with the conditions of your visa may result in the cancellation of your student visa. Visit the Department of Home Affairs website for further information regarding your student visa conditions.

Dependant Family members

If you have dependants travelling with you to Australia you need to ensure they are covered in your student visa application. School-aged dependants accompanying you to Australia will be required to pay full fees if they are enrolled in either government or non-government schools.

For further information please visit the Department of Home Affairs website.

For information on schools in New South Wales please refer to:
<https://education.nsw.gov.au/> and
<https://www.educationstandards.nsw.edu.au/wps/portal/nesa/home>

It is also compulsory that you and your dependants have valid health cover.

Deferral, Leave of absence and Suspension of studies

Students who need to defer studies or apply for leave of absence for compassionate reasons (such as serious illness, bereavement, crime against the student) during trimesters should apply for leave from their program and provide evidence of a genuine reason for their inability to study. The International Leave of Absence form is available on the UniSQ website.

Students who defer studies are expected to leave Australia during the period of their deferral, unless exceptional circumstances prevent them from leaving Australia. UniSQ will notify Department of Home Affairs on the student's behalf to ensure visa compliance.

Please refer to the policy for further information regarding the assessment of special circumstances procedure.

- Student's enrolment may be suspended or cancelled due to poor academic progress.
- Please refer to UniSQ policy relating to Student Academic Progress Procedure
- Student's enrolment may be suspended or cancelled on the basis of academic misconduct. Please refer to UniSQ policy relating to Academic Integrity
- Students are required to enroll by the last date to add courses in a given trimester.
- Students who are not enrolled and who do not recommence studies in a given trimester will be given two (2) weeks as a time frame before their COE is cancelled.

STUDENT SUPPORT SERVICES

UniSQ Sydney has resources and staff available to help students if necessary. If you are facing problems of any kind, please do not hesitate to contact the staff. Our highly trained staff are always happy to help you whenever possible. Please take advantage of the support facilities available before any problems becomes an issue, so that you may have a happy and rewarding experience while you are studying in Sydney.

Orientation program

The orientation program is conducted for all new students arriving on campus at the beginning of each trimester. Students are provided with peer support through a mentor program. A briefing is conducted on Australian culture and the study style in Australia. Information is given to students regarding accommodation, student visa conditions, work permits, overseas student health cover, and use of information technology facilities within UniSQ Sydney. The Orientation Program is held at Level 7, 29-35 Bellevue Street, Surry Hills 2010, NSW AUSTRALIA. Ph:+61 2 9280 3733.

Mentor program

UniSQ Sydney organises the mentor program where new students get an opportunity to meet and interact with senior students. This program assists the new students in their adjustment and acts as a support network. The representatives provide students with information on local community associations and cultural support groups. For further information please contact the Manager- Academic Services: lara@usqsydney.nsw.edu.au

Academic Support

In addition to regular lectures and tutorials students are provided with extra academic support such as revision tutorials and peer aided learning. All students must undertake Mandatory Academic Integrity Training so you can learn about academic integrity, how academic misconduct is managed at UniSQ and resources to help you with your referencing and writing. There are a number of study support resources and services for students to access.

Peer Tutorial Support

Additional tutorial support and peer tutoring is organised for students requiring academic assistance. This service has been beneficial to students experiencing difficulties in their studies. To register for Peer Tutorials please contact Manager- Academic Services: lara@usqsydney.nsw.edu.au or Ph: +61 2 9280 3733.

Counselling services

UniSQ has Wellness Team that provides counselling services to all currently enrolled UniSQ Students. The UniSQ counselling service is designed to assist students in dealing with a wide range of problems including homesickness, balancing your studies with other commitments, managing stress, working through relationship or family issues, improving motivation, managing psychological problems and coping with distressing situations. Book a counselling appointment online or contact the UniSQ Wellness Team: email: usqwellness@usq.edu.au or phone: +61 7 4631 2372.

Student Services

UniSQ provides student support and information in areas of health and wellbeing, disability support, accessing career advice and how to get in touch with potential employers, welfare support in relation to accessing finance, safety and legal advice, accommodation advice and tips for renting and living with others, and multi-faith services.

Emergency and Crisis Support

Don't forget if you have an emergency requiring an ambulance, fire department or police, call 000 immediately.
